MRB drives Lori

2nd November 2011

Creative Connections

PRODUCTION
 MRB Productions

Lori Huck, the former vice president of New Line Television, has joined Hollywood-based MRB Productions as its new director of development. The company, founded by two-time Emmy Award-winning producer Matthew Brady, specialises in television, features, new media and commercials. With an eye towards all facets of television development, Huck has developed and helped launch various network series, such as Spike TV's Blade: The Series, MTV's Friday: The Animated Series, and Lifetime's television movie, Poison Ivy: The Secret Society. She holds a Master of Fine Arts degree from New York University's Tisch School of the Arts in Film and TV Production, and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Film Studies from the University of California.

About shots

Launched in 1990, it is the world's leading commercials title, providing ideas and inspiration for creatives internationally as well as being the foremost source of information for the industry.
